Battling With Your Teens & Losing The Battle?

You Don't Want to Miss These Discussions on Effective Parenting!

Please join Coach Jason in this ongoing series of free Tele-Roundtable Discussions for Parents of Teens and Young Adults. Interactive, informative and fun, a Tele-Roundtable is just like attending workshop, but instead of driving, parking and making sure your hair is combed, all you need is a free hour and a phone! Coach Jason will present 10-15 minute on a topic of interest followed by a moderated discussion. These discussions are held every Monday at 7:30 PM Pacific time via a free, telephone conference line. (Your only investment is a long distance call to Idaho.)

Coach Jason has over 35 years experience working with teens and parents of teens. He is the resident expert on parenting of teens at ExpertVillage.com
